

Front Porch Alliance – Indianapolis Food Resource Network Conference Breakout Session Summary by Quadrant

- Southwest
 - STVdP-type pantry
 - Gleaners has pantry at 3737 Waldemere, but the space is too small for growth.
 - Cub Foods building at 10 Street was suggested as a possible facility for Pantry Partner.
 - Barriers broke down quickly.
 - Need a non-partisan communication strategy
- Southeast
 - They have no large pantries.
 - There was an overall lack of awareness of what was going on in their area.
 - Needs could be met if they had a Pantry Partner in their area (long-term solution)
- Northeast
 - Replicate best practices (Good Samaritan Network in Hamilton County has good model where volunteers work together as one).
 - Needs are organization, collaboration, sustainable food sources, pantry model, distribution model, food rescue/kitchen model, client tracking, and education (Fishers United Methodist Church hands out recipes with food.).
- Northwest
 - Training, food prep education
 - Maximizing use of food
 - Provide technical assistance
 - Voice of the people
